

Money Matters

Postgraduate Home students 2025/26

Introduction

Welcome to Money Matters – your guide to everything you need to support you through the sometimes difficult business of juggling your finances while you study.

We'll explain the different fees and highlight other expenses you will encounter; we'll describe the funding that's available to you and how to apply for it; and we'll tell you where to go for help and support when you need it.

Costs and budgeting

As a postgraduate student, you probably have some experience of managing your own finances, but we understand that funding a postgraduate course can be an overwhelming commitment, so if ever you want help or advice, there's a range of support services you can call on whenever you need them (see page 13).

Considering your costs

It's important to think about your finances in good time before you arrive at university. Make sure you're clear on what fees you are required to pay and that you apply for any funding you may be entitled to (see page 7 and page 8).

Planning your budget

Planning your budget is an essential part of managing your finances. Think about everything you will need to spend money on and make sure your income is sufficient to cover it. If not, it may be time to rethink your spending, or you may wish to top up your income with a part-time job.

Help with fees

There are a number of ways you can get help with the cost of being a postgraduate student. These include Postgraduate Student Loans, alumni discounts and a limited number of scholarships. Further details and information on how to apply are in the next section. Remember too, that you can top up your income with a part-time job. Take a look at the University Jobs Central jobscentral.kingston.ac.uk/students for a list of part-time jobs in the local area.

Advice and guidance

Our experienced Student Welfare Advisors are on hand to give you advice and guidance about any money-related issues. This includes managing your money, student finance queries, and dealing with debt. Confidential one-to-one appointments, drop-ins, email and telephone information and advice are all available. You can also meet with Student Welfare Advisors, who run drop-in sessions and can help provide you with any support you need (see page 13).

Postgraduate fees

To get accurate costs for your chosen course, we advise that you view the postgraduate course and research fees pages on the Kingston University website in the first instance, or contact the relevant faculty office or admissions department.

The following tables outline the level of fees you can expect to pay for the academic year 2025/26.

Postgraduate fees

All students are required to pay tuition fees. The tuition fee is not dependent on your household income. For the academic year 2025/26 these are as follows.

Postgraduate taught – Home and EU students

Price Point	Fee level	Subject area
A (MBA)	£25,000	– MBA
B	£13,500	– Business and Social Sciences, Kingston School of Art
C	£12,400	– Business and Social Sciences, Kingston School of Art
D	£11,400	– All Faculties
E	£10,300	– Kingston School of Art

Research fees

Study mode	Home/EU
Full time	£5,006
Part time	£2,503
Part time – Distance Learning	£2,503
Writing-up fee (one year only)	£1,000 for 2025/26 entry students

Important

All fees are subject to change on an annual basis. The fees shown apply for year 1 of the degree onwards for the 2025/26 academic year (fees will rise in line with inflation for future academic years).

If you are studying on a two year part time postgraduate course, you will be charged the same amount again in your second year as you were in your first, provided you progress directly in the following academic year.

If you are unsure about your fees, please refer to our website: kingston.ac.uk/fees

When to Pay Your Fees

Below is a table to help you understand the financial requirements you need to have in place before being able to complete your enrolment.

Don't wait until the last minute to complete these, do them now to ensure your enrolment is not held up.

Level of Study	Payment Method	Paying in Instalments?	Required to Enrol
Undergraduate, Foundation or Postgraduate	Self-Funding	Yes	Set up a payment plan once you have enrolled and received an invoice for your fee
Undergraduate, Foundation or Postgraduate	Sponsored	Not available	Completed sponsorship form submitted and approved by the University
Postgraduate	Postgraduate loan	No	Payment in full before enrolment
Postgraduate	Postgraduate loan	Yes	Set up a payment plan once you have enrolled and received an invoice for your fee. Instalments to be taken in line with loan payment dates.

Important

It is important that you pay your fees to the University on time. Failure to do so will delay your enrolment and may lead to a disruption in your course.

Continuing students who have tuition fee debt outstanding from previous academic years will not be allowed to re-enrol until the debt and associated costs have been cleared.

Should a fee fall overdue due to non-payment, the University operates a formal recovery procedure which includes the use of external agencies and may result in a County Court Judgment ('CCJ') being registered against you in the amount of the debt, plus costs, plus interest.

Payment Methods

Option 1: Postgraduate Loan

Unlike the undergraduate tuition fee loan, the postgraduate loan is paid directly to you in three instalments rather than being paid to the University. You will therefore need to arrange how you will pay us for your tuition fees.

If you would like to pay your fees by instalments aligned to those dates please follow the instalment guidance in option 3.

Option 2: Sponsorship

If we have received confirmation from your sponsor that they are funding your studies then we will invoice them directly for your tuition fees. For more information on sponsorship please view the section on how your employer, an embassy or other organisation can pay your fees.

Option 3: Self-funded

Online payment

The most convenient way to pay your fees is by using the Kingston University Payment Portal, which can be accessed here:

kingston.ac.uk/payment

You can pay using cards that display these symbols:

Paying in instalments

If you would like to pay your fees by instalment over the academic year you will need to sign up to a payment plan or payment for the full years fees will be required immediately. Payment plan sign up can be done within the University Payment Portal, after you have enrolled and received your fee invoice.

Instalments will be paid automatically from the account associated with your chosen card on the due dates specified by the University (see table below).

Setting your payment plan up late or missing an instalment can result in the percentage of your fee being distributed to each instalment to differ from the values provided in the table below.

Should you opt to pay your tuition fees by instalment, the payment collection dates are:

Official course start date	1st Instalment (33%)	2nd Instalment (33%)	3rd Instalment (34%)
Aug/Sep/Oct 25	23-Oct-25	15-Jan-26	07-May-26
Nov/Dec 25	15-Jan-26	05-Mar-26	04-Jun-26
Jan/Feb 26	05-Mar-26	07-May-26	02-Jul-26
Mar/Apr 26	07-May-26	02-Jul-26	08-Oct-26
May/June 26	02-Jul-26	03-Sep-26	03-Dec-26
Jul 26	03-Sep-26	05-Nov-26	14-Jan-27

Please note this is the only instalment plan option available.

Funding your postgraduate course

The University provides some sources of financial support for postgraduate study, but most postgraduate students either pay their own fees and living expenses, or are sponsored by their employers. See 'Can my employer or sponsor pay my fees?'.

Kingston University alumni discount

The University is pleased to offer a 10% tuition fee discount on eligible full-time and part-time postgraduate courses to alumni who have completed an undergraduate course at Kingston University.

The discount is valid for both postgraduate taught and research qualifications. When completing the online part of enrolment, once you note that you have previously studied with us, this will be picked up in our process, and the discount will be applied automatically. For full details and qualifying criteria, please see the Scholarships page on the Kingston website.

Postgraduate scholarships

Some postgraduate scholarships are available from the University, but they are limited and vary according to faculty. Full details can be found under 'Fees and funding' in the Postgraduate section of our website.

A few full-time postgraduates may receive a studentship from one of the six Research Councils or the Arts and Humanities Research Board.

Progression scholarship

A 15% discount on postgraduate tuition fees is available for Kingston University students who have completed an undergraduate degree in 2024/25. You must start the qualifying course in 2025/26 and the Scholarship cannot be combined with any other University discount.

Extra support for PGCE and social work students

There is some extra support available for teacher training (PGCE) and social work students. Please see our website for full details.

Additional support is also available for disabled students. Disabled Students' Allowances (DSAs) can provide help with specialist equipment and non-medical helpers, such as sign-language interpreters. See our website for more information.

Postgraduate & Doctoral loans

The postgraduate loan

If your course starts on or after 1 August 2025 you can get up to £12,858 for your whole course. If you're studying for 2, 3 or 4 academic years, the loan will be divided equally across each year of your course.

If your course started prior to 1 August 2025 you can get up to £12,471 for your whole course. If you're studying for 2, 3 or 4 academic years, you'll get the first half of the loan in your first year and the rest in your second year.

Payment

The postgraduate loan will be paid directly to you. Each year's amount will be paid in three instalments of 33%, 33% and 34%.

Eligibility

See gov.uk/postgraduate-loan/eligibility for the most up-to-date information regarding whether you qualify for a postgraduate loan.

Doctoral Loans

If you are starting a Doctoral degree on or after 1 August 2025, you could get a Postgraduate Doctoral Loan of up to £30,301 to help with course fees and living costs.

It is not based on your income and is paid directly to you.

See gov.uk/doctoral-loan for the most up-to-date information regarding whether you could qualify for a Doctoral Loan.

Important

As both the Postgraduate Masters and Doctoral loans will be paid directly to you, if you intend to pay your tuition fee using those funds you will still be required to set up a payment plan. Instalments will then be paid automatically from the account associated with your chosen card on the due dates specified by the University, which have been scheduled for after you will have received the funds (see table in Payment Methods section).

Can my employer or an organisation pay my fees?

Yes. If your employer or another organisation agrees to pay all or part of your tuition fees, the University will refer to them as your sponsor. The University will invoice your sponsor for the amount they have agreed to pay.

How does the sponsorship process work?

Your sponsor will need to send us a completed Sponsorship Agreement Form before your enrolment – you download the form from kingston.ac.uk/payment

Completed Sponsorship Agreement Forms and letters should be emailed to sponsorletters@kingston.ac.uk, or uploaded to OSIS before you enrol on your course.

Important

- If you intend to have a sponsor pay your fees we will need to have received notification before enrolment
- Notification of sponsorship is required for each academic year of study, and payment by a sponsor is due upon receipt of invoice.
- There is no instalment option for sponsor payments.
- The University may conduct credit checks on the sponsor and reserves the right to reject a sponsor letter or purchase order.
- Remember, it remains your responsibility to ensure that the Income and Receivables Team has received your sponsor letter and that it contains all the necessary information as outlined above. The University will not be able to invoice your sponsor until we have received their letter or purchase order.
- If your sponsor fails to pay on receipt of invoice or withdraws their support at any point, you will be responsible for any outstanding fees at that point and the university will hold you.
- Your sponsor cannot be a family member or a company of which you are a director.

How and when to pay your accommodation fees

Accommodation fees

If you have been allocated a place in university accommodation, you can pay your accommodation fees in one of the following ways:

- In full by 1st October 2025
- In full upon receipt of the licence
- By instalment plan

Instalment dates for Kingston University accommodation can be found in the table below. It is only possible to pay by instalment if you have signed up to an accommodation payment plan within the Kingston University Payment Portal.

Setting your payment plan up late or missing an instalment can result in the percentage of your fee being distributed to each instalment to differ from the values provided in your halls licence.

Information relating to your tuition and accommodation payments

As with any financial transaction, certain unavoidable rules and regulations apply. Do take time to read the following and you'll avoid any unnecessary issues or worries later on.

- You need to have your funding method in place and confirmed before being able to complete your enrolment.
- There must be enough money in the nominated account to meet the payment at the time it is collected, otherwise your bank or card issuer may make a charge to your account for each default.
- The only way to pay by instalment is by signing up to a payment plan within the University Payment Portal. If you wish to cancel your payment plan, you forfeit your option to pay in instalments and will be required to pay the outstanding balance in full immediately.
- It is your responsibility to update your contact details and to provide the University with a current term-time address – this can be done via OSIS (Online Student Information System) or through your student office/course administrator.
- You are required to update any changes to your address or telephone number as soon as the changes occur. Failure to do so may incur charges, should we need to trace you.
- Continuing students who have tuition fee debt owed to the University from previous academic years will not be allowed to re-enrol until the debt and associated costs have been cleared.
- Students that enrol late will be required to bring their fees up-to-date and in-line with their cohort before their enrolment can be completed. Please contact the Accounts Receivable Team for more details.
- If the University suspects that a card payment may be fraudulent or it is subject to a chargeback request from the card issuer, we reserve the right to immediately suspend access to university facilities, and we may refer the matter to the police.
- Should a fee liability fall overdue due to non-payment, the University operates a formal recovery procedure which includes the use of external agencies and may result in a County Court Judgment ("CCJ") being registered against you in the amount of the debt, plus costs, plus interest.

Frequently asked questions

How do I contact the Accounts Receivable Team?

Within the StudentHUB (studenthub.kingston.ac.uk) there are a number of additional FAQs in the section titled 'Fees and Payment'. If you cannot find the answer you require there you can submit an enquiry and the team will get back to you.

What if I want to withdraw from or suspend my course?

To submit a request to withdraw or suspend your studies, you should use the "Your Studies" section on OSIS. Before you do, please read through the full regulations kingston.ac.uk/aboutkingstonuniversity/howtheuniversityworks/policiesandregulations

Depending on when you withdraw, you may still be liable for certain amounts of fees to be paid. You can find out how much you would be liable for in the Appendix 1 at the end of the booklet on page 14.

All Postgraduate Research students who leave their course will be credited on a pro-rata basis for the entirety of your course.

What if I have a complaint or dispute?

Complaints should initially be raised at a local level in writing or verbally within 15 University working days of the incident. Staff will endeavour to investigate and respond to the matter within 20 University working days of receipt of the complaint. In the event that we require additional information, we will write to you specifying what it is that you need to provide.

Complaints that relate to billing errors or the service provided by the Finance Team should be sent to:

financecomplaint@kingston.ac.uk
